DRAFT VER. 9.5.0
NOVEMBER 2021

Notes:

Many books etc. are repeated in different world history chronological categories and in other categories and sections where they apply. The same book may appear three, four, or more times in this Selected Bibliography.

Personal libraries of over 50 years of reading, study and research contained many of these books, but not in present downsized library.

Many books read at bookstores, in libraries and on the web in e-book or pdf format.

(Ref.) = used as Reference work, not read in full.

The new style of bibliography entry that lists the publication date up front after the author(s) name(s) is not used. This Select Bibliography continues to use the style of citation format that list publications date basically at the end of the entry.

Author(s) who are repeated are continually listed by their full name(s).

Use the Table of Contents Index below to Jump directly to Bibliography Category of interest or scroll down manually. Note:
On some browsers Table of Contents links don't work.
